THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

The addressed committee (full uppercase)

Expressing concern over the total number of nuclear warheads, which was closed in on 13,000 at the end of 2023,

Preamb starters should be in italic

Reaffirming the commitment of all member states to the maintenance of international peace and security and the reduction of the risk of nuclear conflict,

Preambs should end with a comma

Reminding all member states that nuclear warheads can be up to 3,333 times as powerful as an atomic bomb, which is already capable of levelling a city,

Recalling resolution A/RES/70/28 (2015), created to specify the Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT) further,

First time acronyms or abbreviations should be expanded

Further reminding all member states that a nuclear warhead can have lasting effects, up to a few days of inhabitability and a few weeks to become safe for travel and decontamination,

1. Calls for all member states to sign the NPT and actively abide by its content, with the specification of Israel and India:

Operative clause starters should be underlined

- a. calls upon Israel and India, as responsible members of the international community, to recognise the urgency of joining the NPT regime and actively contribute to its objectives
- b. encourages both nations to engage constructively in dialogue and negotiations aimed at addressing any concerns or reservations they may have regarding the NPT, with the ultimate goal of gaining their signatures
- c. calls upon all states to uphold and strengthen the efficacy of international efforts in nuclear disarmament, non-proliferation, and safeguards implementation;

Operative clauses should end with a semicolon

2. Suggests the sanctioning of states that have not signed the NPT, or those who are not abiding by the content of the aforementioned treaty:

- a. economic sanctions focused on a country's national flow of money
- b. military sanctions
- c. diplomatic sanctions;

Starters can only be used twice if you use "further", "strongly", "with concern" etc.

3. Strongly calls for all countries, except the Permanent 5 (P5), to disarm all of their nuclear arsenals, and dispose of weapons-grade uranium, by the end of 2026, to ensure the prevention of large-scale, nuclear, international conflicts;

4. Urges the creation of a non-governmental organisation called the Non-Nuclear Warheads Organisation (NNWO), tasked with responsibilities such as, but not limited to:

Clauses should be formatted
1. → a. → i.

- a. commit yearly checks, to keep countries in possession of nuclear warheads in check, to ensure their cooperation on the following subjects:
 - i. no usage of nuclear warheads

- ii. transparency regarding countries' nuclear arsenal
 - b. keep a yearly updated database of countries' arsenal, keeping track of the amount and type of nuclear warheads they have in possession,
 - c. ensure the prohibition of the creation of new nuclear warheads, by means such as but not limited to:
 - i. decomposition of factories associated with nuclear warheads
 - ii. the prohibition of the continuation of research on nuclear warheads
 - d. ensure the nuclear warheads are dismantled safely, according to the method of a team of highly specified researchers, to ensure no nuclear waste will be disposed of in the environment;
- 5. Requests the collaboration of all member states to create an international framework, meant for a more transparent discussion on topics such as:
 - a. ensure the information on nuclear technology will not be spread to illegal organisations
 - b. the maintenance of nuclear warheads
 - c. the testing of nuclear warheads
 - d. nuclear technology;
- 6. Encourages the continued strengthening of the safeguards system of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) to ensure that nuclear technology is used solely for peaceful purposes;
- 7. Wishes to be actively seized in the matter. Only the last clause will end with a period
